As in past years, Epiphany Water will be blessed on January 5th. The faithful are encouraged to bring their own empty holy water containers to take reasonable amounts of this powerful sacramental home. Please do not bring your own bottles of water. These will not be blessed. Only the water provided by the canons will be blessed this year.

Remember the importance of sacramentals and the virtues of faith and humility. Tiny amounts of bread and wine, water, salt and oil have been chosen by our Savior Himself to help work our salvation and put the devil to flight. It is not necessary to have copious amounts of sacramentals stockpiled in our homes, what matters more is our faith in their efficacy.

Thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

- Blessed New Year -

Dear Faithful,

A heartfelt thanks from the entire Infant King Priory to all of you who expressed your Christmas greetings to us in the form of treats and other gifts, cards, well-wishes, and prayers! We are very grateful to those who brought food and hot cocoa for the social after Midnight Mass, as well as for the choir members for putting in extra work in order to ensure angelic music for the Christ-Child! The choir will be putting on its annual Voices for Vocations concert one week from today, which I encourage you all to attend. More details on the back of the bulletin!

As you may know, some of our faithful and family of faithful are currently battling covid. Please keep them in your prayers and sacrifices during this Christmas season, and May God bless you all!

Rev. Canon Luke Zignego

VOICES FOR VOCATIONS

Concert And Silent Auction

Priestly vocations are not bought, they are a product of grace working in a holy and Catholic environment. The Voices for Vocations concert is a time when we try to remind ourselves about such an environment or culture. The Concert is not merely a fundraiser, nor simple entertainment. It is a cultural event that lifts the heart and mind to God and enriches our intellect.

This is also why the event has not consisted solely of music but also of Catholic art and rhetoric that foster a love and appreciation for the varied and beautiful callings that God grants to men for the salvation of souls.

It is our sincere hope that you can come and appreciate the beautiful arts that will be displayed. Moreover, we hope that you will leave the event with a greater love of God and His holy priesthood and a stronger will to support the men who strive to answer God's call.

Sunday, January 9th

1 PM festive concert of Christmas favorites performed by the Cor Jesu Choir in our chapel

Followed by in-person silent auction and Cheer!

Suggested Donation $50/Family - No sign up required
