FROM THE PASTOR, REV. CANON COMMINS

Dear Friends and Faithful,

As you know, all canons will be heading to Italy this week for our Annual Institute Chapter where we will be receiving outstanding conferences from our Superiors and friends, as well as praying together the Divine Office for your many intentions and for our Mother Church.

I will then be home in Bordeaux and Paris visiting my family for a few days to enjoy some rest after the busy summer camps (more than 460 young souls this year, and about 160 young adults at our National Retreat) but also to have some quite time to work on our upcoming Oktoberfest Festival and on preparing things to welcome our next crew of candidates who will be arriving on September 12!

Please continue to sign up to volunteer for Oktoberfest as your help is needed!
