Institute of Christ the King Sovereign Priest

To err is human, to forgive is divine.

Every time we pray the Our Father we ask for forgiveness: "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." That "as" is very important. We should not be like the heartless servant in today's parable.

Our forgiveness of our neighbor does not necessarily mean that God forgives him. Surely he must repent for that to happen. But it means that God will forgive us when we pray, "Forgive us our trespasses."

Spiritual maturity or holiness means that we become more like God, and by His grace we are never closer to Him than when we forgive those who have injured us. Even the pagan orator Cicero wrote, before the time of Christ, "There is nothing that makes a man more like God than mercy."

To err is human, to forgive is divine.

Every one of us should be a copy of Jesus. How shall I be such if I do not try to imitate the gentleness of Jesus' heart? O Lord, make me gentle, affable, and agreeable, not to attract the affection of human beings, but to conquer their souls for you!

Canon Antoine Boucheron

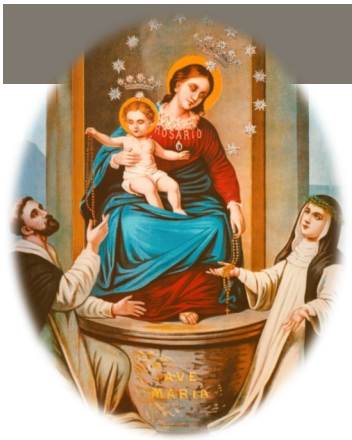
October - The Month of the Holy Rosary



15 Promises to those who pray the Rosary

From St. Dominic and Blessed Alan de la Roche

1. Whosoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest Graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against Hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. It will cause good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant Mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men [and women] from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire for Eternal Things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary shall not perish.
6. Whosoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself [herself] to the consideration of its Sacred Mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice, he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just he shall remain in the Grace of God, and become worthy of Eternal Life.
7. Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the Sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who are faithful to recite the Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the Light of God and the plenitude of His Graces; at the moment of death they shall participate in the Merits of the Saints in Paradise.
9. I shall deliver from Purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of Glory in Heaven.
11. You shall obtain all you ask of me by recitation of the Rosary.
12. All those who propagate the Holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire Celestial Court during their life and at the hour of death.
14. All who recite the Rosary are my sons, and brothers of my only Son, Jesus Christ.
15. Devotion to my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

ST. LUKE, Evangelist & Martyr

Monday, October 18 - 6:30 a.m. Mass

St. Luke the Evangelist (1st c.) was a well-educated Greek physician and a native of Antioch in Syria. He was one of the earliest converts to Christianity, believed to have been one of Jesus' seventy disciples. He was a follower of St. Paul the Apostle and spent most of his life evangelizing with him in Asia Minor up until the time of Paul's martyrdom in Rome. Luke wrote a canonical account of his apostolic journeys with Paul (the Book of Acts) as well as a biography on the life of Christ (the Gospel of Luke). The two books of Luke's Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles were originally a single work. The intimate accounts contained in Luke's gospel of the early years of Christ's life (the Visitation, the Nativity, the Presentation, etc.) lead many scholars to believe that one of the eyewitnesses he interviewed was the Blessed Virgin Mary herself. According to tradition he was also a skilled artist and painted the first icons of Our Lady with the Child Jesus. Several of these icons are still venerated today, the most famous of which hangs in the Church of St. Mary Major in Rome. St. Luke is the patron saint of many trades including artists, painters, doctors, surgeons, and bachelors. His feast day is October 18th.

Monetary Donation Clarification

It's very important to keep your donations separate when you offer your weekly church contribution, and when there are special collections. The special collections, i.e. Seminary collection, St. Anthony, etc. are recorded separately from any regular Sunday giving. Please do not combine them in one check.

Thank you for your help, so that the correct amounts can be directed to the proper fund.

¡Invitamos a todos los fieles Hispanos a una reunión especial!
