Prayer for the Feast of the Assumption of Mary

Holy Mother Mary, we all rejoice with you today on the feast of your glorious Assumption into heaven.

Long ago in the Garden of Eden, our first parents, Adam and Eve, were told that they would have to earn their bread in the sweat of their brow and that the earth would be cursed, bringing forth thorns and thistles. Now, after Christ our Redeemer has come, and taught us how to make use of the thorns and thistles of this life, and turn them into blessings, you, like Him, have been taken up body and soul into heaven. There, with your Divine Son, you await our coming, and prepare a place for us.

Mother Mary, it is a great comfort to us to realize that your precious body, the tabernacle of the infant Christ, is now in heaven with Him. Your being taken into heaven is also, like the resurrection of Christ's body, a pledge to us of the resurrection of our own bodies.

It is wonderful to think that these hands, with which we earn our bread now in the sweat of our brow, will, because of the merits of Christ, one day, with our bodies, be glorified forever in heaven.

O most pure Virgin Mary, help us to realize this as we go about our work from day to day.

Help us to have great respect for these bodies of ours, and for those of others because we recognize in them the temple of the Holy Spirit, and because we look forward to seeing each other, body and soul, with you and your Son Jesus Christ forever in heaven. Amen

The Assumption of Mary

Today is the feast of The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. In our church, this is represented in the rose window over the choir. It is the top image in that window.

The Assumption of Mary is a dogma of the Church. It says that Mary was bodily taken up into heaven at the end of her earthly life. The dogma does not say whether she died or just fell asleep.

St. Stanislaus Kostka

Today is also the traditional feast day of St. Stanislaus Kostka. He is represented in our church by the left statue on the Epistle-side altar and also by a medallion. His is the 5th medallion, on the Epistle side. He got his name from our St. Stanislaus, Bishop and Martyr.

St. Stanislaus Kostka walked from Poland to Rome and become a novice in the Jesuits. He led a very exemplary life and died at age 17. He is buried in Rome in the church of St. Andrew al Quirinale, where visitors can also visit the rooms in which he lived.

St. Hyacinth

This Tuesday, August 17th, is the feast day of St. Hyacinth. He is represented in our church by a medallion and a statue. His medallion is the 4th from the front, on the Epistle side. His statue is the left statue on the Gospel-side altar.

St. Hyacinth was a Dominican priest in Poland. He is credited with saving the Blessed Sacrament and a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary from a chapel in Kiev during an invasion. It was miraculous because the weight of the stone statue was beyond his natural abilities. He is the patron saint of those in danger of drowning.
