7TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
MASS TEXTS IN PARISH BULLETIN , P. 6-7

Dear Faithful,

“Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them” (Matt. 7;15-21). In this Sunday’s Gospel, Our Lord warns us that the true prophets can be distinguished from the false by their fruits, which are either good or evil. But beware of immediate appearances! Don’t judge before the time.

There are indeed would-be prophets who may succeed in attracting large crowds, or who may know how to work their audience by their skilled speech, who can whip up the excitement and warm feelings of their listeners, but who in fact only live to serve themselves by deceiving souls with a version of the Gospel that is too good to be true. “All you need is love,” you may hear them say. To this, we must oppose the words of Our Lord Himself: “But I will shew you whom you shall fear: fear ye him, who after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell” (Luke 12;5).

In today’s Gospel, our Lord quite clearly affirms that we will be held to account not only for our love, but for our acts: “Not everyone that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doth the will of my Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven” (Matt 7;21). Let us therefore always strive to bring our acts into perfect accord with the will of Our Father in Heaven.

Please be sure to take one of the flyers available in the back of the church for the Institute’s Oakland – San Jose summer camp, St. Michael’s Patrol, taking place Thursday August 5 – Saturday August 7. We would like to extend the opportunity to as many boys (ages 6-18) and their fathers as possible to take part in this fun and character-building experience. Campers will be actively engaged in sporting events and games including hikes, archery and flag wars. This camp will of course be an authentic Catholic apostolate; as such there will be daily Mass, Confessions, the Rosary, and time for personal prayer. There will also be a few talks given by the clergy and fathers present. We hope to see you there!

You may have noticed a few familiar faces in the sanctuary as of late who have not been seen around the parish for some time now. These are Abbé Alex Hoopes, a seminarian for the Institute who just received the cassock and clerical tonsure after having completed his first year at Gricigliano, and Tommaso Colella, a candidate for priestly formation with the Institute. Please be sure to greet them warmly, and above all to pray for them.

We also welcome back today Abbé Jacob Wells, who just completed his sixth year at Gricigliano. Pray for him—he’s almost there!

Wishing you a blessed Sunday,
Canon Benjamin Norman

First-year seminarians who received their cassocks and tonsure on June 30 2021; among them is Abbe Alex Hoopes including a severe and lingering pulmonary infection. Since our last update on June 19, his situation remains critical but stable. The slow progression of his recovery appears to result from the fact that the COVID was at an already advanced stage in his lungs when medical treatments in Gabon began in early May. Although Canon's condition is very serious and preoccupying, the COVID specialists at his Florence hospital are hopeful. May Our Lady, Health of the sick, intercede for him in his hour of great need!

CALIFORNIA SUMMER CAMP

We would like to invite all the boys of our apostolate between the ages of 6 and 18 and their fathers to the 2021 Father-Son Summer Camp from August 5th - 7th at the SCCPOA campground (24090 Deer Path Rd, Saratoga, CA 95070). It will be several days of faith, fraternity, and fun. Both of the Institute of Christ the King's California apostolates are invited to this camp, so it will also be a good chance to meet other young men who share the same Catholic faith and manner of life. Please RSVP to Cody Teague at teague.cody@gmail.com.
