Wisdom of St. Francis de Sales

The Lord tenderly loves those who have the happiness of abandoning themselves totally to the fatherly care of Divine Providence. They do not stop to consider if it is advantageous or not to their own interests. Let us be convinced that the fatherly heart of God will never allow anything that is not for our greater good.

Pray the Rosary Daily!

Catechism Corner

From The Catechism of St. Pius X—first issued in 1908 by Pope St. Pius X to fulfill this holy pope's desire to have a plain, simple and brief catechism for laypeople.

The Lord's Prayer

The Seventh Petition

39 Q: What do we ask in the Seventh Petition: But deliver us from evil?

A: In the Seventh Petition: But deliver us from evil, we ask God to free us from evils, past, present, and future, and particularly from the greatest of all evils which is sin, and from eternal damnation, which is its penalty.

40 Q: Why do we say: Deliver us from evil and not: From evils?

A: We say: Deliver us from evil, and not, from evils, because we should not desire to be exempt from all the evils of this life, but only from those which are not good for our souls; and hence we beg liberation from evil in general, that is, from whatever God sees would be bad for us.

41 Q: Is it not lawful to beg liberation from some evil in particular, for example, from sickness?

A: Yes, it is lawful to beg liberation from some evil in particular but always in bowing to the will of God, who may even ordain that particular affliction for the good of our soul.

42 Q: How do the tribulations, which God sends us, help us?

A: Tribulations help us to do penance for our sins, to practice virtue, and above all to imitate Jesus Christ, our Head, to whom it is fitting we should conform ourselves in our sufferings, if we wish to have a share in His glory.

43 Q: What is the meaning of Amen at the end of the Our Father?

A: Amen means: So be it; So I do desire; Thus do I pray the Lord; Thus do I hope.

44 Q: To obtain the graces asked in the Our Father is it enough to recite it any way at all?

A: To obtain the graces asked in the Our Father we must recite it without haste and with attention; and we must put our heart into it.

45 Q: When should we say the Our Father?

A: We should say the Our Father every day, because every day we have need of God's help.

Precious Blood Prayer

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ in atonement for my sins, and in supplication for the holy souls in purgatory and for the needs of holy Church. —Raccolta n. 219

Homily by St. Hilary, Bishop of Poitier

The Lord here warns us that we must rate the worth of soft words and seeming meekness, by the fruits which they that manifest such things bring forth in their works, and that we should look, in order to see what a man is, not at his professions, but at his deeds. For there are many in whom sheep's clothing is but a mask to hide wolfish ravening. But "Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so, every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit." Thus, the Lord teaches us, is it with men also, evil men bring not forth good fruits, and hereby are we to know them. Lipservice alone wins not the kingdom of heaven, nor is every one that says unto Christ: "Lord, Lord," an heir thereof.

What use is there in calling the Lord, Lord? Would He not be Lord all the same, whether or not we called Him so? What holiness is there in this ascription of a name, when the true way to enter into the kingdom of heaven is to do the will of our Father, Who is in heaven? "Many will say to Me in that day: Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy Name?" Already here does the Lord rebuke the deceit of the false prophets, and the feigning of the hypocrites, who take glory to themselves because of the power of their words, their prophesying in teaching, their casting out of devils, and such-like mighty works.

Because of all these things they promised unto themselves that they shall enter into the kingdom of heaven as though in their words and works any good thing were their own, and not all the mighty working of that God upon Whom they call, since reading brings knowledge of doctrine, and the Name of Christ drives out devils. That which is needed on our part to win that blessed eternity, that of our own which we must give, is to will to do right, to turn away from all evil, to obey with our whole heart the commandments laid on us from heaven, and so to become the friends of God. It should be ours rather to do God's will, than to boast of God's power. And we must put off from us and thrust away such as are by their wicked works already estranged from His friendship.
