At Holy Family Catholic Church: 338 W. University Blvd., Tucson

Month dedicated to the Holy Rosary Oct 17th, A.D. 2021

VERITATEM FACIENTES IN CARITATE - LIVING THE TRUTH IN CHARITY

Novena to Our Infant King

In preparation for the Titular Feast of the Institute of Christ the King, join us in the novena taking place October 22-31.

O Divine Infant Jesus, I have recourse to Thee. Please,
through Thy Blessed Mother, assist me in this necessity

(mention intention here), because I firmly believe that Thy Divinity can help me. I hope with confidence to obtain Thy holy grace. I love Thee with all my heart and with all the strength of my soul. I repent sincerely of my sins and I beg Thee, O Good Jesus, to grant me the strength to triumph over them. I resolve never more to offend Thee and I come to offer myself to Thee with the intention of enduring everything rather than to displease Thee. Henceforth, I desire to serve Thee with fidelity and, for the love of Thee, O Divine Infant, I will love my neighbor as myself. All powerful Infant, O Jesus, I implore Thee again, assist me in this need. Grant me the grace of possessing Thee eternally with Mary and Joseph and of adoring Thee with the angels in the heavenly court. Amen.

*"The more you honor Me,
the more I will bless you."*

Pious Instructions from St. Francis de Sales on Praying the Holy Rosary:

- Kiss the cross of your [Rosary] after having signed yourself therewith, and place yourself in the presence of God, saying the Creed.
- On the first large bead, beg God to accept the service you wish to render Him, and to assist you by His grace to accomplish it worthily.
- On the first three small beads, implore the intercession of the Sacred Virgin, saluting her: on the first, as the most cherished daughter of God the Father; on the second, as Mother of God the Son; and on the third, as the beloved Spouse of God the Holy Ghost.
- At each decade think of one of the Mysteries of the Rosary according to your leisure, remembering it principally when pronouncing the holy names of Jesus and Mary with great reverence of heart and body. If any other sentiment should animate you (sorrow for past sin or a purpose of amendment) meditate thereon throughout the chaplet as well as you can, recalling this sentiment or any other that God may inspire in a special manner when murmuring the sacred names of Jesus and Mary.
- [At the end] thank God for having been permitted to recite your chaplet; salute the most holy Virgin Mary, entreating her: [first], to offer your understanding to the Eternal Father that you may continually consider His mercies; [second], supplicate her to offer your memory to the Son that your thoughts may constantly turn to His Passion and Death; and [third], implore her to offer your will to the Holy Ghost that it may ever be inflamed with His holy love. . . Beg the divine Majesty to accept all for His glory and the good of His Church, asking Him to keep you ever in its pale and to bring back those who have wandered; pray for your friends, and conclude as you commenced by the profession of faith, the Sign of the Cross.

"Let us run to Mary, and as her little children, cast ourselves into her arms with a perfect confidence!" St. Francis de Sales

Thought from St. Francis de Sales:

Jesus Christ Himself said, "Love one another. Such as my love has been for you, so must your love be for each other." [Jn 13:34] You must give a lot of thought to this statement, because it means that we must love others more than we love ourselves. The Lord always put others before Himself and still continues to do that, making Himself our food every time we receive Him in the Blessed Sacrament. In like manner He wants us to love others and even to prefer our neighbor to ourselves.

(Spiritual Treatises IV; O. VI, p. 57)

Twenty-First Sunday after Pentecost

INTROIT: Esther 13: 9, 10, 11; Ps. 118:1 All things are in Thy will, O Lord; and there is none that can resist Thy will: for Thou hast made all things, heaven and earth, and all things that are under the cope of heaven: Thou art Lord of all. (Psalm) Blessed are the undefiled in the way who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory be. All things....

COLLECT: O Lord, we beseech Thee, with steady kindness keep Thy household safe: that, through Thy protection, it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to good works for the glory of Thy name. Through Our Lord.

EPISTLE: A letter from Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians Eph. 6: 10-17

Brethren: Be strengthened in the Lord, and in the might of His power. Put you on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the deceits of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers, against the rulers of the world of this darkness, against the spirits of wickedness in the high places. Therefore, take unto you the armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and to stand in all things perfect. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of justice, and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; in all things taking the shield of faith, wherewith you may be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the most wicked one. And take unto you the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

GRADUAL: Ps. 89: 1-2 Lord, Thou hast been our refuge from generation to generation. Before the mountains were made, or the earth and the world was formed, from eternity and to eternity Thou are God.

ALLELUIA: Alleluia, alleluia. When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a barbarous people. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Mt. 18: 23-35 † Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

At that time Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: The Kingdom of heaven is likened to a king who would take an account of his servants. And when he had begun to take the account, one was brought to him that owed him ten thousand talents: and as he had not wherewith to pay it, his lord commanded that he should be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. But that servant falling down, besought him saying: Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And the lord of that servant being moved with pity, let him go; and forgave him the debt. But when that servant was gone out, he found one of his fellow servants that owed him an hundred pence: and laying hold of him, he throttled him, saying: Pay what thou owest. And his fellow servant falling down besought him, saying: Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not; but went and cast him into prison till he paid the debt. Now his fellow servants, seeing what was done, were very much grieved; and they came and told their lord all that was done. Then his lord called him and saith to him: Thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all the debt because thou besougest me; shouldst not thou then have had compassion also on thy fellow servant, even as I had compassion on thee? And his lord being angry delivered him to the torturers until he paid all the debt. So also shall My heavenly Father do to you, if you forgive not every one his brother from your hearts.

OFFERTORY: Job 1 There was a man in the land of Hus, whose name was Job, simple and upright and fearing God; whom Satan besought that he might tempt: and power was given him from the Lord over his possessions and his flesh; and he destroyed all his substance and his children, and wounded his flesh also with a grievous ulcer.

SECRET: In Thy readiness to forgive, O Lord, accept this sacrifice: for it is Thy will that through it Thyself art appeased and we restored and saved.

COMMUNION: Ps. 118: 81, 84, 86 My soul is in Thy salvation, and in Thy word have I hoped: when wilt Thou execute judgment on them that persecute me? The wicked have persecuted me: help me, O Lord my God.

POSTCOMMUNION: We have been seeking the food of immortality and implore Thee, O Lord, that with its savor still on our tongues, we may with pure hearts continue to pursue it. Through Our Lord.
